Missing You
I sit alone now in the darkness of despair.
I cry my silent tears.
My heart is broken into a million tiny pieces.
The silence is deafening to my ears.
The darkness frightens me.
The shadows climb the wall.
I hear footsteps walking,
Passing through the hall.
The loneliness surrounds me;
It takes my breath away.
This is the pattern of my life
Since that awful, dreadful day.
Without a clue,
Without a hint
Of what was yet to be,
God called you home
To be with him
And took you away from me.
I walk,
I talk. I carry on
When the sun pokes out its head,
But when darkness falls
And evening comes,
I cannot go to bed.
For this is when I miss you most of all.
When I curl into a little ball
And cry those silent tears.
Watching the shadows
And missing you.
From Your Wife
In Loving Memory of My Son
Of all the special gifts in life
However great or small
To have you as my son
was the greatest gift of all.
A special time
A special face
I can't replace.
With aching heart
I whisper low
I miss you Son
and love you so.
From Your Mother
Good Bye Brother
Heaven has called upon you today,
leaving so many words left to say.
But now it's too late, for your time has come,
words unspoken; I am sure everybody has some.
Regrets and wishes are probably there too,
but lasting forever are memories of you.
I was there when you needed a place to stay,
just like you would be there for me night or day.
There have been many times that we disagreed,
but we were there for each other in time of need.
Now it's time for me to say Good-Bye,
until we meet again in heaven to fly.

Acknowledgement
We, the family of Mr. Christopher Patrick Lindsay, would like to thank each of you for all acts of kindness shown to us during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless each of you with His love, grace, and mercy.

If roses grow in Heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Father’s arms
And tell him they’re from me.
Tell him I love him and miss him,
And when he turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon his cheek
and hold him for awhile
because remembering him is easy,
I do it every day,
But there’s an ache within my heart
that will never go away.
From Your Children, Christon and Christianna Lindsay
O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together. I sought the Lord and He heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

Mr. Christopher Patrick Lindsay was the son of Christopher and Donzetta Taylor-Lindsay, and the grandson of Onalee D. Taylor. He was born June 8, 1969, in Columbia, South Carolina.

He furthered his education at South Carolina State University, in Orangeburg, South Carolina, where he received his Bachelor’s Degree.
