To Our Grandmother

My Beautiful Black Queen
I hate to see you go
I’m going to miss your melanin soft skin
That always used to glow.
I know you’re in a better place with no pain,
No more hurt
I bet that right knee feels a whole lot better.
Now since you left this earth
Grandma, we are going to miss you so much.
And you know we will just cover all of us.
Lift them up and let them know
You are still here.
You always said to people,
“I have those healing hands”
But now can you heal us
While we grieve on one another’s chest.

Obituary

Ms. Eula Mae Sister Moore was born on September 15, 1945, in Bamberg, South Carolina. She was the beloved daughter of the late Horace and Eva Mae Jones Johnson. She departed this earthly life on Sunday, March 31, 2019, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Eula was educated in the public schools of Bamberg County, South Carolina. At an early age, she accepted Christ as her personal Savior.

Ms. Moore was a loving daughter, mother, sister, grandmother, aunt, and friend to many. Though she is no longer physically with us, her kind and loving spirit will forever remain in the hearts and lives of all who knew and loved her dearly.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by: 25 of her siblings.

Ms. Eula Mae Moore leaves to cherish her fond memory: her three children, Calvin Johnson, James (Tanya) Johnson, and Joanna Simons, all of Columbia, SC; her beloved partner of 35 years, Jimmie Lee Adams; eight grandchildren, Ashley Rumph, Breayon Prophet, Torrance Johnson, Brandon Johnson, Wonyae Garcia, Rockell Turner, Shanice Johnson, and Jamie Johnson; eight great-grandchildren; seven brothers, Willie (Naomi) Johnson, Bishop Richard C. (Lois) Johnson, Sr., John E. Johnson, Nathaniel Johnson, Matthew Johnson, Larry (Angela) Johnson, and Christopher Scott; five sisters, Mamie Waldo, Cynthia C. Michael Sapp, Frances (Ben) Mack, Ernestine Ross, and Bethal Johnson; two sisters-in-law, Debra Johnson and Willa Johnson; a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
