The Day God Called You Home

God look around His garden
And found an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest
God’s garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best

He saw your road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb
So, He closed your weary eyes
And whispered, "Peace be Thine."

When we saw you sleeping
So calm and free of pain
We would not wish you back to earth
To suffer once again

You’ve left us precious memories
Your love will be our guide
You live on through your family
You’re always by our side

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn’t go alone
A part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary

Mr. Kenneth Lynn Jones, of 7602 Hunt Club Road, Columbia, SC, was born August 16, 1957, in Bowman, South Carolina. He was the son of Mrs. Jessie Mae S. Jones and the late Joseph D. “J.D.” Jones. He departed this life on Wednesday, April 22, 2020, at Providence Northeast Hospital, in Columbia, S.C., following a brief illness.

Kenneth graduated from Bowman High School, in Bowman, South Carolina, in 1975. He received a B.S. Degree in Social Services in 1979 and a Master’s Degree in Rehabilitation Science in 1982 from South Carolina State University, in Orangeburg, South Carolina. Mr. Jones retired from the Department of Social Services, in Columbia, SC. He was also employed at Time Warner Cable, in Columbia, South Carolina. Mr. Jones was also a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

At an early age, Kenneth became a member of St. Michael United Methodist Church, in Bowman, South Carolina. After moving to Columbia, SC, he joined First Nazareth Baptist Church, under the leadership of Reverend Blakely N. Scott, where he served as a dedicated usher.

Mr. Kenneth Lynn Jones leaves to cherish his fond memory: his mother, Mrs. Jessie Mae S. Jones, of Bowman, South Carolina; brother, Mr. Joseph D. Jones Jr., of Orangeburg, South Carolina; two sisters, Ms. Wanda V. Jones, of Cordova, SC and Ms. Cynthia D. Jones, of Irmo, SC; nieces, a nephew, other relatives, and dear friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
