

One At Rest

*Think of me as one at rest,
For me you should not weep
I have no pain no trouble thoughts.*

*For I am just asleep
The living thinking of me that was
In now forever still
And life goes on without me now,
As time forever will.*

*If you heart is heavy now
Because I've gone away
Dwell not long upon it friend
For none of us can stay
Those of you, who liked me,
I sincerely thank you all
And those of you who loved me
I thank you most of all.*

*And in my Fleeting Lifespan
As time went rushing by
I found some time to hesitate,
To laugh, to love, to cry
Matters it now if time began
If time will ever cease?
I was here, I used it all
And now I am at peace.*

Mr. Charles Edward Smith

Obituary

Mr. Charles Edward Smith was born on February 27, 1953, in Eastover, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Grady and Lucinda Smith. He departed this life on Wednesday, August 25, 2021.

Charles was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, and graduated from Lower Richland High School. He served in the United States Army for four years. After his tour of duty, he was employed at the Coca Cola Company in Columbus, Ohio, as a machine operator for five years. Charles returned to South Carolina, and continued to work as a laborer at Patterson Masonry Company.

Mr. Smith was baptized at Mount Zion Baptist Church, at a young age, in Eastover, South Carolina. He was also a very friendly person to everyone he met.

Mr. Smith was preceded in death by: his parents, Grady and Lucinda Smith; brothers, Blake and Robert Lee Smith; and sisters, Willi Anne Fisher and Ernestine Smith.

Mr. Charles Edward Smith leaves to cherish his precious memory: his two sisters, Martha Sumpter, of Columbia, SC and Elizabeth Hinton, of Hopkins, SC; two brothers, Henry Smith of Eastover, SC and Franklin Smith, of Gadsden, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mr. Charles Edward Smith, wish to express our deep appreciation for your kind words, thoughts, and deeds. We thank you all for the comforting support of your prayers and concerns. May God continue to renew you with the divine blessings of His love and grace.
