

Obituary

Ms. Pattie Charmaine Williams was born on April 20, 1968 in Queens, New York. She was one of four siblings. Pattie was the beloved daughter of Bertha Diane Coleman Williams and Robert Williams. She departed this life on Tuesday, August 24, 2021.

Pattie completed her high school education in the state of New York. She then furthered her education at South University, where she earned her Associate's Degree in Medical Assisting. She was a dedicated employee at the South Carolina Department of Corrections, where she was employed for fifteen (15) years.

Pattie was a loving and devoted mother and grandmother. She loved to sing, loved music, and was very family-oriented.

She was preceded in death by: her parents, Robert Fulton Williams and Bertha Diane Coleman Williams; and a nephew, Winfield Gillespie.

Ms. Pattie Charmaine Williams leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted daughter, Patrice Diane Graves; her grandchildren, Lauren Charmaine Williams and Christopher Raphael Williams, Jr.; her siblings Revetta (Willie) Way, Robert (Rhonda) Williams, and Cassandra (Shawn) Farris; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all of whom will miss her deeply.

Death is Nothing But a Moment's Rest

Death is nothing but a moment's rest
Until the Second Coming of the Lord
When He shall gather to Him of the best to take them to the place of their reward.

I've felt the power of Jesus in my soul
Shining like a golden sun within,
Melting my hard heart to make me whole,
Burning out the remnants of my sin.

I've felt Him work within me,
So I know the glory that will come when I awake.
I'll sleep just like a child who'll homeward go,
And in my dreams of love great pleasure take.
So do not mourn my death, and do not grieve.
The Lord will come for me: This I believe.
