

Obituary

Mr. Thomas Bellamy, Jr.'s journey began on October 11, 1983, in Mount Vernon, New York. He was the son of Lucille Stallworth Bellamy and Thomas Bellamy. He departed this life to be with the Lord on Thursday, September 2, 2021.

Thomas attended Lower Richland High School, where he enjoyed being on the football team. He attended Greenview First Baptist Church. Thomas was employed with the South Carolina Department of Education, where he performed school bus maintenance.

On March 31, 2016, Thomas married the love of his life, Latoya Weston, and became the proud and loving dad to two children: Mason and Mariah. He was an awesome husband and dad. He loved his family, including his four-legged companion, Mona.

Thomas enjoyed fishing, camping, family get-togethers, adventurous weekend trips, many visits to the Riverbank Zoo, going to the beach, and cruising with the family. He also loved their Friday movie night and playing nerf wars with the family. Thomas was an avid Indianapolis Colts fan. He was fortunate to see his beloved Colts play in person; he was so excited.

Thomas was preceded in death by: his parents, Lucille Stallworth Bellamy and Thomas Bellamy; his oldest brother, Orlando Stallworth; and grandmother, Annie Mae Bellamy.

Mr. Thomas Bellamy, Jr. leaves to mourn and celebrate his life and legacy: his loving wife, LaToya Weston Bellamy, of Columbia, SC; one daughter, Mariah Weston; one son, Mason Sumter; three sisters, Monisha R. Stallworth, of Columbia, SC, Lakesha Bellamy, of Columbia, SC, and Sonya Bellamy, of Tampa, Florida; three nieces, Tanya Stallworth, Promise Taylor, and Tori Gill; one nephew, Tai'Von Stallworth; mother-in-law, Linda McKiver Weston, of Columbia, SC; father-in-law, Reuben Weston, Jr., of Columbia, SC; a host of other nieces, nephews, aunts, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, cousins, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

The Broken Chain

*We didn't know that morning
That God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone;
For part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side
Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*
