

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master Plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends, we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

- Christina Georgina Rossetti

Obituary

Mr. Charles Franklin Holloway, affectionately known as Dolla Bill, was born January 13, 1942, in Edgefield, South Carolina, to Ms. Lille Mae Holloway Young, who preceded him in death. He was raised in Cayce, South Carolina. He had a special bond and love for his grandmother, Lillie N. Holloway.

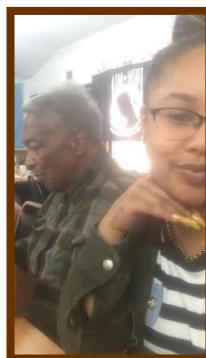

He was employed and retired from Overnight Transportation Company after fifty-two years as a truck driver. He never met a stranger and gave everybody a nickname. He was a pillar in the Cayce -West Columbia Community. He was a lover of NASCAR, The New York Yankees, Pound Cakes, Sweet Potato Pie, and his collection of Big Shiny Cars.

His love and care could be seen daily in the unique bond that he shared with his children, grandchildren, and his sisters. Charles positively impacted all that he met. Known for his affectionate smile and jovial personality, he will be missed tremendously.

He was predeceased by his wife, Thomasina Brown Holloway; his stepdaughter, Barbara Myers; sons, Robert Mack and Charles Dukes; brothers-in-law, Robert Mims, Sr., Roy Thompson, and John Daniels.

Mr. Charles Franklin Holloway leaves to cherish his precious memory: his daughter, Felecia Holloway; son, Zeus Gordon; two sisters, Lucille (Arthur) Smith and Bernice (Dr. Walter) Tobin; two sisters-in-law, Mary Daniels and Evelyn Thompson; sister-in-law, Geneva Mims; brothers-in-law, Frank (Elaine) Mims, Raymond (Wilhelmina) Mims, Cornell (Amy) Mims, and Heyward (Elaine) Mims; three stepdaughters, Jackie Cory, Betty Jo Brown, and Virginia Lee Sewell; his grandchildren, SaMaria (Michael) Prezzy, Braelyn Holloway, and Justyn Woodard; four great-granddaughters, Lauryn Sumter, Londyn Sumter, Aubree Prezzy, and Amari Prezzy; a host of grands, nephews, nieces, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him.
