

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Mrs. Hattie Mae Sims-Kincade was born on May 2, 1946 in Hopkins, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Willie James Sims, Sr. and Julia Mae Days-Kearse. She departed this life on Tuesday, September 7, 2021.

Hattie was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. She was united in Holy Matrimony to Robert Lee Kincade in Winnsboro, South Carolina in the early 1970s.

Hattie loved to cook and made a living working for the South Carolina Department of Mental Health until she retired. She was still working at Shoney's unto her passing.

Mrs. Kincade was a life long member of New Light Beulah Baptist Church. The members were like a second family to her.

She was preceded in death by: her parents, Willie James Sims, Sr. and Julia Mae Days-Kearse; her husband, Robert Lee Kincade; and a brother, Willie James Sims, Jr.

Mrs. Hattie Mae Sims-Kincade leaves to cherish her precious memory and celebrate her life: one sister, Sarah (Robert) Weston; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will greatly miss her.
