

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Ms. Elnora Delores Robinson was born on August 10, 1925 in Florence, South Carolina. She and her two sisters were reared by their aunt, Elnora Neely, and uncle, Joseph Neely; along with their three children.

Elnora was educated in the public schools of Columbia. She graduated from Booker T. Washington High School, Class of 1941. She received a bachelor's degree from Benedict College and her Master's degree in Library Science from NC Central University.

She taught for several years at Perrin Thomas Elementary. Later she became a librarian at Greenview Elementary for more than 20 years.

She was a faithful member of Zion Baptist Church for more than 70 years. As a member of Zion Baptist Church, Elnora served as Assistant Superintendent of Sunday School and Superintendent of Vacation Bible School. She was a member of several organizations including: the Musical Choir, Mass Choir, the Missionary Society, Waverly Wide Awake Circle, National Association of University Women, Church Women United, Octave Plus Bridge Club, National Council of Negro Women, Founder of the Friendly Bunch Senior Group, Martin L. King Neighborhood Committee (King Park Stone of Hope), Richland County Education Association of Retired Teachers, South Carolina Association of School Librarians, Waverly/Valley Park Garden Club, founding member of the Stone of Hope Committee. She was the recipient of the Living the Legacy Award given by NCNW for worthwhile contributions.

She enjoyed singing on the choir, dancing, and bowling. Elnora had a long rich life, and its time for her to rest and be at peace.

Ms. Elnora Delores Robinson leaves to cherish her memory: her nephew, Milton Thacker; niece, Eleanor Briggs; grandnephew, Joseph Briggs; goddaughter, Clarietta Marshall; godsons, Thomas Marshall, Sr. and John DeLyons; grand-godniece, Mia Roberts; grand-godnephew, Furman Roberts, III; a host of loving relatives and friends, all of whom join the family in sharing the grief caused by her departure.
