Hcknowledgement

We, the family of Mrs. Edna Mae Brown, wish to thank each of you for the many loving and wonderful acts of love and kindness rendered, during the passing of our dear loved one. We thank each of you so much, and may God send a special blessing upon each of you.

I lift up my eyes to the hills-- where does my help come from? My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth. He will not let your foot slip-- he who watches over you will not slumber; indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD watches over you-the LORD is your shade at your right hand; the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD will keep you from all harm-- he will watch over your life; the LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away Her journey just begun, Life holds so many facts This earth is only one... Just think of her as resting From the sorrows and the tears In a place of warmth and comfort Where there are no days and years. Think how she must be wishing That we could know today How nothing but our sadness Can really pass away. And think of her as living In the hearts of those she touches... For nothing loved is ever lost And she was loved so much.

Obituary

Sister Edna Mae Lucas Brown was born on July 2, 1952, at her home on 1310 Rockefeller Street in Savannah, Georgia. She was the fifth of seven children raised on Tybee Island. She was baptized at Lil Litway Baptist Church on Tybee Island, where she attended Sol C. Johnson School for first through twelfth grade.

Sister Brown was a member of Lil Litway Baptist Church most of her adulthood. She married the love of her life Robert Lee Brown, on July 15, 2000 and relocated to Columbia, SC. She was baptized at Progressive Church of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and received the gift of the Holy Ghost. She worked on the Hospitality Board for many years. She then decided to further her education and began attending Southern Wesleyan International University. She graduated with an Associates of Arts and Business Degree in 2007, while teaching at Watkins-Nance Elementary.

She loved caring for her family; this was why she chose the career in childcare. She touched the lives of so many and her memory will forever be in our hearts.

Sister Edna Mae Lucas Brown leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Robert Brown; one son, Michael Lucas; daughters, Angela Lucas, Angela Brown, Carla Smoot, Katrina Garrick, Keisha Brown, Maria Washington; sisters, Thomasina and Washington, Alberta Singleton, and Deloris Washington; with a host of other relatives and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
