

Obituary

Mr. Javaris De'mond Blanks Hammond was born on June 11, 1988 in Huntsville, Texas. He was the only son born to Tracy Blanks Stills and Bennie Bendale Hammond. Javaris departed this earthly life for eternal life on Friday, October 15, 2021.

Booman attended the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. He loved living in Columbia, South Carolina, with his family. Javaris never was the type to be angry or mad. He always kept a smile. He was humble and forever grateful for the little things, even for a simple smile. One of his favorite lines was...“I luv ya cuh,” always with a smile.

He was preceded in death by: his grandparents, Betty Jean Hammond and Bennie Lee Hammond.

Mr. Javaris De'mond Booman Blanks Hammond leaves to mourn his passing: his daughter, Ivionce Latoria Blanks Hammond, of Oxford, Mississippi; his parents, Tracy Blanks Stills and Bennie Bendale Hammond; a sister, Tamickia Latoria Hammond, of Columbia, South Carolina; his grandmother, Betty Jo Massie Byrd, of Huntsville, Texas; stepfather, Juan Stills, of Huntsville, Texas; a special cousin, Aqueshia Massie; a special friend, Desmond Schiavrelli; a host of aunts, uncles, and cousin, of Huntsville, Texas and Columbia, South Carolina; all of whom will miss him dearly.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.*
