

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning,
 that God was going to call your name.
 In life we loved you, dearly,
 in death, we do the same.
 It broke our hearts to lose you,
 but, you didn't go alone;
 For part of us went with you
 the day God called you home.
 You left us peaceful memories,
 your love is still our guide.
 And though we cannot see you,
 you are always at our side.
 Our family chain is broken,
 and nothing seems the same.
 But as God calls us one by one,
 the Chain will link again.
 We love and miss you ever so much.*

Obituary

Mr. Egbert Quincy Mack was born on December 14, 1954, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the oldest son of Albert Mack and Henrietta Mack. He departed this life on Saturday, October 9, 2021.

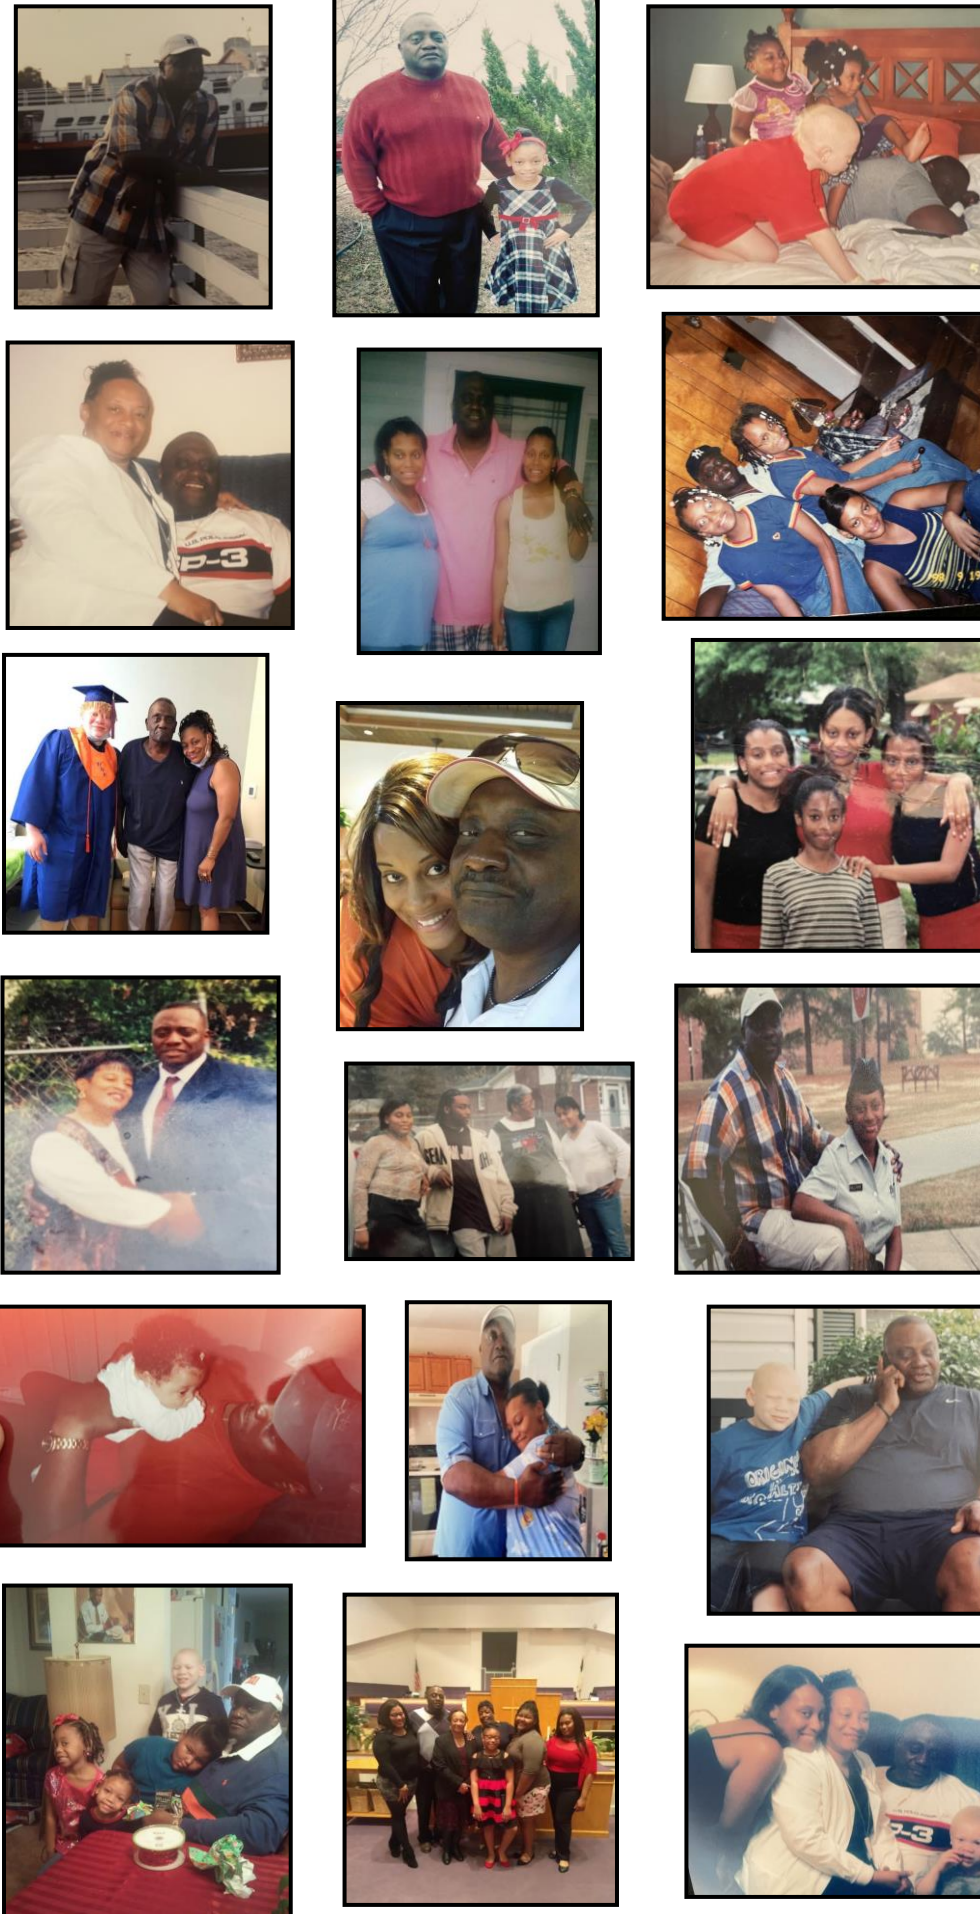

Mr. Mack was educated in the public schools in Brooklyn, New York, and graduated from Samuel J. Tilden. Mr. Mack played college football for Morgan State University, from August 1975 – June 1979 wearing #36. Mr. Mack was in the United States Army for 8 years. Mr. Mack worked for the United Postal Service for many years until he retired.

Mr. Mack was baptized some years ago at First Nazareth Baptist Church, by Reverend Blakely N. Scott in Columbia, South Carolina. He enjoyed spending time with family watching football, watching old Gunsmoke movies; and he was a very comical person.

He was preceded in death by: his father, Albert Mack; brother, Anthony Albert Mack.

Mr. Egbert Quincy Mack leaves to mourn his passing: his wife, Arlene Williams Mack; daughters, Lakisha Marie Williams, Cristy Michelle (Alex) Burns, Misty Renee Williams, and Kimberly Nicole Johnson, of Columbia, South Carolina; mother, Henrietta Mack; sisters, Curtis Ann Boston and Lashawn (Julio) Sanchez; nine grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
