

I'm Still With You

*I wish you wouldn't cry the way you did today
While thinking of the many things we did or did not say There is no more pain for me, no more fear,
If the sun should rise and you cry, in heaven there are no tears
An angel came and called my name, I heard his call and took his hand.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I could not stay another day
I know you love and miss me, although I can't laugh, work, nor play
If my parting has left a void, let memories take the place of me
A family shared, a laugh, a kiss, trials to make you strong; let it all be Don't think we're far apart, my journey has just began with so many things to do For each time you think of me, I'm still with you*

Obituary

The Life and Memory of Joseph Lee Robertson (1952 – 2021)

Mr. Joseph Lee Robertson was affectionately known as “Joe Lee” to his friends and family. He was born in Columbia, SC on October 18, 1952. He departed this life to take eternal rest on October 28, 2021.

He was employed with Hardaway Concrete Company, Inc, where he was dedicated employee.

Joseph was such a joy to be around. He loved to tell jokes and keep a smile on everyone’s face. He was known for his love of music, whether it was singing or producing it.

Joseph was preceded by: his parents, Robert Robertson, Sr., Essie Moore Robertson; his sister, Ruth R. Joyner.

Joseph leaves to cherish his loving memory: his children Joseph (Shuronda) Robertson, Jr., of Columbia, SC and Lakeica Robinson, of Columbia, SC; his brother, Robert (Alice) Robertson, Jr., of Columbia, SC; fiancé, Angela Foust, of Columbia, SC; four grandchildren, Jaleyah, Jamiyah, Joseph Avery, and Bryan; three aunts, Annie Mae Davis, of Columbia, SC, Callie Taylor, of Columbia, SC, and Amy Taylor, of Columbia, SC; his uncle, Fred Taylor, of Columbia, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of the late Joseph Lee Robertson, would like to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the many acts of love and kindness rendered to us during our period of bereavement.
