

One Man One Plan

One Man, One Plan
One name, no games
As I walk thru the shadow of death
No fear is placed
Once I leave, you will always remember my face
I took this journey and became a man
Had big dreams accomplished them with a plan
Opened a business set a foundation
No need to weep this is a celebration
A family man first and made things happen
Sit back and ride, I am the captain
Life is too short to be mad and bitter
A man with a plan is never a quitter
So, as I may seem far I'm all so near
I want everyone to come together
Let me make it clear
I'm at peace now so y'all can go on with your life
I took over the world Jehovah has given me my stripe
To love is to be loved and to go through the jungle
A man with a plan
A loving, kind, humble, and devoted son, brother, father, grandfather, uncle, and cousin.

Love always, Lawanda

Jehovah Saw You Getting Tired

Jehovah saw you getting tired.
When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to Me."
You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.
Jehovah's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.
And when I saw you sleeping
So peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again.

The Life Story of Mr. James Albert Banks

MR. JAMES ALBERT BANKS was the only son born to Floyd and Maggie Jordan on January 23, 1944, in Greenville, South Carolina. He departed this life on Saturday, October 30, 2021, at the home of his beloved eldest daughter, Juanita Banks.

James received his formal education in the South Carolina school system.

James was a devoted father of four daughters, all of whom held a special place in his heart. He also was a devoted grandfather and great-grandfather. He was affectionately known as Uncle Bubba, to his nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Floyd and Maggie Jordan; the mother of his two eldest daughters, Shirley Banks; three sisters, Agnes Banks, Mae Frances Irons, and Wilma Banks; two grandsons, Charles Lamb and Marquise Thompson; one brother-in-law, Richard Irons, Sr.; one nephew-in-law, Clarence Lawson; one nephew, Richard Irons Jr.; one great-nephew, Wayne Baggett Jr.; one great-niece, Nakia Baggett; one great-great-niece, Latoya Lawson; and two aunts, Hattie Patterson and Helen Benson.

Through his lifetime, James held several different jobs. But, his pride and joy came when he formed Cayce Concrete. James stood proud in this business. He took much pride in pleasing his customers. He was blessed to come in contact with many valued employees, but Wayne Jenkins was his friend and confidant.

James was a man of great stature, but his heart would truly melt for the love that he had for his family. James was a die-hard fan of the Philadelphia Eagles and the Clemson Tigers.

James will forever be remembered and sadly missed by all who knew and were close to him.

MR. JAMES ALBERT BANKS' legacy will forever be remembered by: his four daughters, Juanita Banks, of Hopkins, Valarie Banks, of Spartanburg, Jennifer Oree, of Blythewood, and Valarie Dreher, of Columbia; grandchildren, Chamika Banks, Shandell Banks, Dominique Dreher, Tammy Lamb, Vernon Richardson, Quesley Richardson (Alyjah), Ashley Montgomery, and Eric Montgomery; great-grandchildren, Ja'Quise McKinney, Ny'Liyah Ghebre, Za'Riah Ghebre, Aubrey Richardson, and Jeremiah Richardson; nieces, Willow Dean Lawson, Icie Baggett (Wayne), Denise Banks-Gordon, Jackie McDuffie, of Philadelphia, Gena Banks-Martin (Stephon), of Columbia, and Brenda Jordan, of Philadelphia; nephews, Michael Banks, of Philadelphia, Vaughn Wilson, of Columbia and James Irons, of Philadelphia; five great-nieces, five great-nephews, eight great-great-nieces, twelve great-great-nephews, eight great-great-great-nieces, seven great-great-great-nephews, one great-nephew-in-law, one great-niece-in-law; special friend, Beulah Mitchell, of Charleston, SC; a host of cousins, other relatives, and dear friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
