Reflections of the Life of
Mrs. Girtie Mae Noble Caldwell

Girtie Mae Caldwell was born on August 21, 1941 in St. Matthews, South Carolina. After an extended illness, she departed this life on Tuesday, November 16, 2021, at Prisma Health Richland Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina.

Girtie was affectionally known as Nunki. She was the beloved daughter of the late Josh and Allie Lucas Noble. She was united in holy matrimony with the late Lawrence Caldwell.

Girtie received her education through the Calhoun County School System, and graduated in 1958 from John Ford High School. While attending high school, she loved playing basketball as the lead point guard. Girtie worked as an Operating Room Technician, at Richland Memorial Hospital for 20 years. She also worked at Sunshine Retirement Home in Beaufort, South Carolina, until she medically retired.

Girtie was preceded in death by: her husband, Lawrence Caldwell, Sr.; and son, John Anderson Lee, Jr.

Girtie was a faithful member of New Laurel Missionary Baptist Church, until her health started to decline.

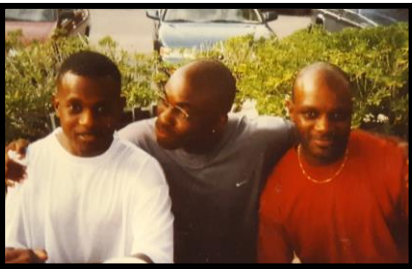

Girtie had a witty sense of humor, but please don't make "me come out my bag." She loved Gospel Music and Family Feud hosted by Steve Harvey. Most importantly she loved, cherished, and was very protective of her children.

Those left to cherish the precious memory of Girtie are: 8 children, Janice (Ronald, Sr.) Weathers, of Lumberton, North Carolina, Annette (Wayne) Brown, of St. Matthews, South Carolina, Doris Nash, and Carroll Gaffney, all of Columbia, South Carolina, Bernard (Collette) Lee, of Norfolk, Virginia, George (Shawnti) Lee, of Jacksonville, Florida, Francina Lee, and Sophia Guida, of Columbia, South Carolina; one brother, Herbert (Catherine) Noble; one sister, Lillie B. Sims, of Brooklyn, New York; 24 grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and friends all of whom will miss her dearly. Let us rejoice as she is now at peace and we look forward to seeing her in the resurrection.

Just Know

When they take away the flowers
And folded the last chair
When family and friends have said so long
And you are sitting there.
Just know that at the moment
When you don't know which way to go
Girtie's love is surrounding you
It's okay to let go.
Just know that she loved you
And holds you in her heart
Just know that she has prayed for you
And she has done her part.
Just know that you will hurt sometimes
Many tears you will shed
Girtie's love is always there for you
Go ahead and rest your head.
Just know that on those sleepless nights
When you still call out her name
Just know her arms still hold you tight
She loves you just the same
Just know that time will ease the pain
Grief's hold will no longer be supreme
You'll speak with her like days of old
When you meet her in your dreams.
Just know one day not far from now
In the twinkling of an eye
You'll see her smile and outstretched arms
In the sweet by and by.
