Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.

Obituary

Mr. Andrew Mayo Fields was born on October 3, 1989 in Columbia, SC. He was the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Fields and Malcolm Fields. Andrew departed this life on Sunday, November 14, 2021, to join His Heavenly Father.

Andrew was a devoted father. He spent his life making sure that he touched as many lives as he could. Andrew was a proud member of Eau Claire High School, Marching Band Congo Brother. He also continued his love for music at South Carolina State University, as a member of the 101 Marching Band (Bongo Brothers). He will be remembered as a role model, mentor, and just an overall great friend.

He was preceded in death by: his brother, Matthew Fields.

Mr. Andrew Mayo Fields leaves to cherish his precious memory: three daughters, Za'Nylah L. Fields, Za'Riyah M. Fields, and Zarielle M. Fields; his father, Malcolm Fields; mother, Elizabeth G. Fields; his two sisters, Kittisha Mills and Marlaina Glover; a lifetime partner, Dominika Joseph; a host of relatives and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
