Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Mrs. Gloria Corlonn Cauthen Gomillion was born on July 15, 1942, in Clinton, NC. She passed away peacefully in her sleep on Tuesday, November 30, 2021, at Pruitt Health Nursing Facility, at the age of 79.

Gloria married her handsome husband, Donald Gomillion, on December 23, 1960. Unfortunately, on August 13, 2015, Gloria's husband passed away from a long battle with lung cancer.

Gloria lived a great and wonderful life, as she was able to fulfill her lifelong dream of becoming a teacher. Gloria taught for over 30 plus years, and she loved every minute of it. Gloria not only taught children but she made a lifelong impact on their lives and the lives of their families through her passion and love for teaching.

Mrs. Gloria Corlonn Cauthen Gomillion leaves to her passing survive: two children, Christie V. Roberts and Cornelius V. Gomillion; eight grandchildren, Jerome L. Matos, Cornisha V. Powell, Ashlee Gomillion-Smith, Leslee Jennings, Jeyna D. Roberts, Doneil Gomillion, Corneshia S. Gomillion and Cornelius Gomillion, Jr.; 19 great-grandchildren and many other loving relatives and friends. She will be missed but never forgotten.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mrs. Gloria Cauthen Gomillion, would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to all who have shown comforting expressions of love, sympathy, and prayers, during the passing of our loved one. Our hearts will always be grateful for your kindness, as we pray for a special blessing to be bestowed upon each and every one of you.
