I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

The Life Reflection of Ms. Jocelyn Danielle Harris

A Time To Be Born and A Time To Die

Jocelyn D. Harris was born on July 27, 1969, in Trenton, New Jersey, to Larry D. and Janie D. McQuilla Harris. She entered her heavenly eternal rest on Sunday, October 31, 2021, at her home in Columbia, South Carolina.

A Time To Be Educated

Jocelyn attended the parochial schools of Trenton, NJ, and graduated from McCorristin Catholic High School, in Hamilton, NJ, Class of 1987. She matriculated to Widener University, in Chester, Pennsylvania. Jocelyn graduated with honors in May of 1991, with a Bachelor of Science in Hotel and Restaurant Management. In 2019, she also obtained her Real Estate License for the State of South Carolina.

A Time To Build Up

At an early age, Jocelyn’s parents instilled in her a strong sense of faith. Her walk with Christ began at Beauty Grove Primitive Baptist Church, in Trenton, NJ. She actively participated in the Youth Department serving as a member of the Youth Choir and with the church Sunday School Department. She faithfully attended the annual National Primitive Baptist Convention, which was hosted in various states across the United States, reinforcing her love of travel to new and exciting places.

After relocating to Columbia, SC, where she purchased her first home, Jocelyn became a member of Bible Way of Atlas Road Church. She found her niche serving faithfully in the Media Ministry.

A Time To Labor

Jocelyn’s career started off utilizing her earned degree, when she became the kitchen manager at Red Lobster, in Lawrenceville, NJ, where she stayed until her move to South Carolina. She then was employed as the cafeteria manager at Blue Cross/Blue Shield for several years until she discovered her gift of salesmanship when she started at CARMAX as an entry level sales consultant. During her long tenure there, she attained and sustained Ultimate Level Status, which is a reflection of a superior auto sales person.

She truly enjoyed and loved her CARMAX family.

In her down time, Jocelyn developed her passion for baking THE most delicious cakes and making a bang-up banana pudding! Another pastime of hers was crocheting baby blankets and lap throws for her friends and family members.

Jocelyn had an infectious smile that was followed by a laugh that lifted the lowest of spirits whenever she was in the room. She impacted many lives with her love of Christ, life, travel, and family ties.

Jocelyn was preceded in death by: her maternal grandparents, Hosea and Janie McQuilla; and her paternal grandparents, Commodore and Eva Sanford Harris.

A Time To Celebrate

Jocelyn Danielle Harris leaves to cherish and celebrate her memory: her loving parents, Larry D. and Janie D. Harris, of Sumter, SC; one sister, Jacqueline D. Harris-Smith, of Las Vegas, NV; one brother, Julian D. Harris, of Sumter, SC; her nieces, Janasia, Jahara, and Zakiya Smith, and Zahria Harris; one great-niece, Leilah Smith; her nephews, Donovan, Daquan, and Devin Harris, and Drevon Smith; cousins like sisters, Ruby Simpson and Kimberly Teague; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, extended church and community family, colleagues, friends, and special friends, Michelle Walters, Paula Rolax, Beth Rolax-Morine, Kimberly Curls-Feagin, and Anthony Davis.

Jocelyn will always be remembered as a fearless protector of the underdog, a champion of laughter that filled the room, and a lover of Christ that was evident in the love and commitment crocheted into every item that was given. Her legacy of loyalty and dedication to hard, honest work will be carried on by those who loved and knew her best.
