Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Ms. Rebecca Tyson was born on September 6, 1938 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of Mary Madeline Jackson and Henry Perry Tyson. She departed this life on Tuesday, November 9, 2021.

Ms. Tyson attended the Philadelphia Girls High School. She also attended Health You Care, to obtain her certification, as a Licensed Practical Nurse. She was gainfully employed with Ashton Hall Nursing Home, until her retirement. Rebecca loved sightseeing, shopping, listening to music, and going to dinner. She enjoyed life and helping others.

Ms. Rebecca Tyson leaves to cherish her memory: three children, James H. (Lugina) Tyson, Sr., Renee L. Tyson, and Sabrina Tyson; two grandsons, James H. (Monique) Tyson, Jr., of Jacksonville, FL and Jerome C. (Latoya) Tyson, of Detroit, MI; five great-granddaughters, Autumn, Karley, Jada, Jordan, and Tamia; four great-grandsons, Ashton, James, III, Jayden, Jr., and Jerome, Jr.; her best friend, Mrs. Martha Newson, of Philadelphia, PA; two close family friends, Suzy Elby and Donna Chapman; along with a host of other relatives and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Ms. Rebecca Tyson, deeply appreciate your kind expressions of sympathy, during our time of sorrow. We know our pain will decrease and what will remain will always be love. Love all of whom you hold dear. Precious is the time you share. Do not wait for tomorrow. For tomorrow may not be.... Thank you for keeping us in your thoughts and prayers.
