

One of Mama's Favorite Poem

Each morning when I awake I say
I place my hand in God's today,
My every wandering step to guide.
He leads me with the tenderest care
When clouds are dark and a I despair
No need for me to understank
If I but hold fast to His hand.
My hand in His no surer way
To walk in safety through the day
By His great bounty I am fed
Warmed by His love and comforted
When at last I seek my rest
And realize how much I've been blessed.
I place my hand in God's again.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning,
that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you, dearly,
in death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but, you didn't go alone;
For part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.
We love and miss you ever so much.

Obituary

Mrs. Annie Bell Edmond Ellis was born on May 22, 1928 in St. Matthews, South Carolina. She was the first child of six children of the late Henry P. Edmond and Elizabeth Keller Edmond Briggman. She departed this earthly life and went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, December 28, 2021.

She received her formal education in the public schools of Calhoun County, South Carolina. She was a housekeeper as well as a homemaker. Annie Bell accepted Christ at an early age, and was baptized at Antioch Baptist Church, in Calhoun County. She later became a member of Trinity Baptist Church, in Columbia, SC. As a member of Trinity, she was an active member involved in church activities and was a member of the Jubilee choir. She was a member of the Eastern Star (Cleopatra Chapter 580).

Annie Bell married Marion Ellis in 1948. Their union was blessed with seven children: Marion, Charles, the late Elizabeth, Willie, the late Ronald, Samuel, and the late Sharon.

Mrs. Annie Bell Edmond Ellis leaves to cherish her memory: her sons, Marion (Cassandra), Charles, Willie (Fonda), of Wichita, KS, and Samuel (Wanda), of Miami, Fl; one sister, Mary Major, of Columbia, SC; two brothers, Henry (Mary) Edmond, of Columbia, SC and Ernest (Lavater) Edmond; two sons-in-law, Wesley Clark and Linwood Williams, of Florence, SC; fourteen (14) grandchildren; eight (8) great-grandchildren; also a favorite nephew, Heyward Lynn Edmond; and special friends, Reverend Jessie and Delois Bellinger and Mrs. Joyce Johnson; helpful and caring neighbors, Mrs. Doris Blanding and Mr. Christopher Jones; beautiful friends, Regina H. Quillens, Diane Marshall, and Willis Ann Grant; along with a host of other relatives and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
