Family and Friends

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mr. Jonathan Edward McNeil, would like to extend our gratitude to those who have gathered today to be with us during this difficult time. We would also like to extend a thank you to the many who reached out to us on social media with fervent prayers, condolences, and heartfelt words of support. As we are in the midst of a pandemic, we appreciate the understanding of those who graciously agreed to support us in corporate prayer and maintaining COVID protocol in lieu of a large gathering. All of you know how important the safety of family members and friends was to Jonathan. Words can't express how much we appreciate our pastor, Reverend Dr. Charles B. Jackson, Sr., our Brookland Baptist Church Family, work families, and our extended village in Florida, Georgia, Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee, and New York.

A great soul never dies. It brings us together again and again."

Reflections of the Life of Mr. Jonathan McNeil

Mr. Jonathan Edward McNeil was born on August 21, 1989, in Bethesda, Maryland, at the National Naval Medical Center. He was the oldest of two children born to Mr. Tony A. McNeil and Deanna S. McNeil, MD. He transitioned from his earthly body on Tuesday, December 21, 2021.

Jonathan was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. He was a graduate of Ridge View High School, Class of 2007. He received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Psychology from Clemson University.

Jonathan regularly attended Brookland Baptist Church, West Campus, during his youth, where he served proudly as a Junior Usher. His family members are still members of the congregation. He was living in Atlanta, Georgia, where he was employed by TK Elevators. He surrounded himself with a host of cherished friends in Atlanta, who described him as thoughtful, hardworking, caring, smart, and dependable.

Mr. Jonathan Edward McNeil leaves to mourn him: his parents, Tony and Deanna McNeil; his brother, Kevin McNeil, of Charleston, South Carolina; many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

To Those I Love and To Those Who Love Me

When I am gone release me; let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love – you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now it is time I traveled on alone.
So, grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call, I will come.
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near;
And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you, soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"Welcome Home."
