

What A Wonderful Grandmother

*You were a beautiful woman, Smart, kind, and wise,
I cannot stop these tears from falling down my eyes.
You always had the time to listen to my problems.
No other woman, but Grandma could solve them.
You taught me more about life than anyone at all.
You were always available at any time I would call.
From the smell of your cooking, to your favorite TV show.
I will cherish those memories, wherever I go.
You fed me well, you made me strong.
You taught me my rights from my wrongs.
You made me feel that I belong.
You always had that Special Touch.
I love you grandma so very much.
To all of us you shared your love.
Please watch over us from heaven above.*

Obituary

Mrs. Janie Lue Roberts was born on March 25, 1942, in Allendale, South Carolina. She was the second eldest child of Coye Patterson and Luvenia Patterson. She departed this life on Thursday December 30, 2021.

Mrs. Roberts was educated in the public school system of Allendale County, SC. She began working at a very young age. She loved caring for the elderly, and she often worked in individual's homes caring for them, cooking, and cleaning. She later worked in Community Care Homes as a caretaker, and retired after years of dedicated service.

Mrs. Roberts was first baptized at Haskell Heights Baptist Church. Later through a close friend, she was introduced to the Apostolic way, where she was baptized in Jesus' name at Saints Progressive Church, under the leadership of Pastor Boyd. After years of service at Saints Progressive Church, the Lord moved her to Shiloh Mission Apostolic Church, under the leadership of Dr. Radden. She served faithfully on the choir and usher board. Most importantly, she surrendered her life to Christ. After many faithful years at Shiloh Mission, the Lord sent her to Greater Faith Holiness Church, under the leadership of Bishop Cathy Goins. She served faithfully on the choir lifting up the name of Jesus and also served as one of the Mothers of the Church. She often encouraged others to go to church and to follow Christ.

Ms. Roberts was preceded in death by her parents, Coye and Luvenia Patterson; her husband, Allen J. Roberts, Sr.; a son, Michael A. Roberts; and a sister, Elizabeth Roberts.

Mrs. Janie Lue Roberts leaves to cherish her precious memory: her daughters, Johnnie Mae Gause (Willie) and Monica Roberts, both of Columbia, SC; sons, Bobby Patterson, Allen J. Roberts III, Coye D. Roberts, all of Columbia, SC, and Karl M. Roberts, of New Jersey; 21 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren; four stepchildren, Allen J. Roberts, II, Herbert Lee Roberts, Lisa Roberts, Miriam Williams; aunts, cousins, nieces, and nephews, the Greater Faith Church Family, and friends, all of whom will truly miss her.

Memories

Our Mamma

There is no replacement she was one of a kind. She was not a picture person, but very photogenic. She loved going to church, shopping, and doing word find puzzles. She taught us about Jesus and His righteousness, how we should go to church, and often times taught her grands not to hang around the "bad crowd." Our mother taught us many things but what sticks out the most is that she taught us to love and to forgive one another.
