

My Father's Tree

*In this tree of wisdom and strength,
Hearty branches grow at length.
Protecting us from inevitable storm
Strong and sturdy and true to form.
Its fruit of labor bears witness to
An immeasurable bounty had by few
So filled with love in a blessed place
This tree was planted
With amazing grace.*

*Thank you for always being there for us, Daddy.
We love you with all our heart.*

My Son

I can't find the words to say how much I will miss you every day. I don't know how much I can bear. I will make it because of the strong love we share. Even though we will be apart, your presence will forever be in my heart. In my head, I am asking Lord why? My comfort is knowing you are with your grandparents, aunt, and uncle in your new home on high. My son, I know God has a plan. Because now he's holding you in his hand. Sleep in peace, my firstborn, my son. I will help with your children to make sure they carry on. We will miss you each and every day and we will smile as we repeat some of the things you use to say. Rest on my son, we will see you again one day.

*Forever Your,
Mom*

John 14: 27

*Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.
Not as the world gives do I give to you.
Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.
Today we are mourning as we lay our son to rest.
We will remember our son, Anthony Altona Stewart, as we are Grateful that God's words were so true.
Anthony, as you continue to rest, we will remember you
Our Son, and your children will remember their dad!*
