Reflections of the Life of Theron Naeem Wallace

An inspiration to life itself, Theron Naeem Wallace was born January 23, 2001, in St. Louis, Missouri. His parents are Dr. Weldon Wayne Wallace and Franquelletta Manigault Wallace. Theron was called to his Heavenly home on December 25, 2021.

They chose the name Theron Naeem for its meaning “Hunter” and “Happiness” and “Comfort”. Theron’s joy for nature, spiritual growth, and exploration of his inner-self, with focus on the consumption of natural resources and bringing people together, are endearing examples of what he stood for and how his name complimented him.

Theron gave his life to Christ on January 26, 2014, at Brookland Baptist Church. He devoted his time to learning the Bible and how the words within the Bible manifested his life. He grasped in-depth meanings through daily meditation and shared his thoughts with all those he met. His free spirit of not limiting himself by fear of the unknown or thoughts of danger inspired him to seek the truths. He shared his dreams and intellectual thoughts with everyone that he engaged in conversation. He would also question why he would smile when sharing his thoughts; but unknown to him, it was a way that God allowed him to lighten the atmosphere, in order to permit a friendlier way for explaining some thought-provoking discussions. This was especially true when he provided instruction/guidance to his only nephew, Ezekiel Isaiah Brown. Theron’s enduring love for his siblings, LaShae, Nandi, and Cadre was well noted. He always expressed how important family was to him. He enjoyed having debates, promoting healthy habits, and spending pure family time together.

Theron graduated with the Class of 2019, from Ridge View High School in Columbia, SC and pursued a bachelor’s degree in Psychology at the University of South Carolina, in Aiken (USC-Aiken). While attending USC-Aiken, Theron expanded his range of influence by engaging in a variety of intramural sports which included: basketball, flag football, and volleyball. He also took pride in introducing prospective new students to USC-Aiken as the school’s Admissions Ambassador. To exemplify a level of independence, Theron joined the Air Force Reserves on October 18, 2019, and became an active member of the 81st Aerial Port Squadron at Charleston Air Force Base, SC. He was recently promoted to Senior Airman.

His elders whom continue to cherish his memories include: paternal grandparents, Norris (Grace) Wallace, Jr., of Kingstree, SC; maternal grandparent, Francis (late Dorothy) Manigault, Sr., of Moncks Corner, SC; paternal aunts/uncles, Dr. Wandy (Jim) Taylor, of Atlanta, GA, Norris (Aba) Wallace III, of Columbia, SC, Sylvia Wallace, of Columbia, SC, Mark (Gillian) Wallace, of Atlanta, GA, Elder Tony (Menbere) Wallace, of Charlotte, NC, Keith Wallace, of Kingstree, SC, Kent (Rachell) Wallace, of Columbia, SC, Kirt (Georgiana) Wallace, of Goose Creek, SC, and Tammy Wallace, of Phoenix, AZ; maternal aunts/uncles, Quontreece (Doug) Thompson, of New Port News, VA, Francis “Jay” (Sharon) Manigault, Jr., of Summerville, SC, and Dorothea Manigault (godmother), of Moncks Corner, SC; godfather, Allen Flemming, of Orangeburg, SC; a host of cousins, other loving relatives, and many caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Theron’s Final Written Words 12/25/2021 3:52am

i believe that God would want us to get the most out of life and it turns out you get more out of life if you appreciate your life and the things in it than if you didn’t feel the need to pay attention, piece things together to find meaning, and find love for experience and everything that contributes to its totality (and its infinite manifestation of meaning) eternal life allows for an infinite growth of meaning and increasing love for experience.

i love the way i walk

i love the way i drive

i love the way i talk

i can love the small things about myself because i do them in present moment awareness and i express authentically who i am and realize my expression greater self love - greater awareness to genuine expression in the present moment.

how can u be lost if God is behind u and u know Christ?
you know God is protecting you and you know who to idol, the servant with the highest order.

an acceptance mindset runs deep. to every part of your life, really accepting that bad things can happen all the time in every area, but you hope for God’s decision to be in your favor and if it isn’t then you know you will deal with it in that moment with God on your side. Because you know that He ultimately has your good in plan.
