

Dearest Stori,

Losing you is the hardest thing I've ever had to deal with, the human heart has four major chambers, and my heart had four; in which you happened to be one of those chambers. Losing you has broken me, but I know that you don't want me to stay in a dark place.

Because of you I learned that life is a GIFT, no matter how hard it is. Because of you, I'm learning that love is a precious gift, I will try to love everyone and everything, just like you did, I will cherish the memories. Because of you, I'm learning patience and gentleness. Because of you, I learned that living and loving is a choice and that those things fill our lives with meaning. Because of you, I'm learning that there is life beyond loss and in time it can be filled with joy and laughter again.

It is an honor and privilege to be your mom and I look forward to the day that I will get to see you and hold you again. Thank you for all that you have taught me.

Love, Mom
