

Obituary

Mrs. Betty Roseborough Garvin was the daughter of the late Ernestine Tobias Vant and was reared by her grandparents, the late Rueben and Dollie Mae Roseborough in Columbia, South Carolina. She departed this life on Sunday, February 13, 2022, after a brief illness.

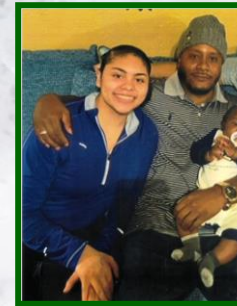

Betty was educated in the public schools of Columbia, South Carolina. She graduated from C. A. Johnson High School and attended Allen University.

Betty loved gardening. Her best times were spent in the fields picking squash, green beans, corn, and peppers to name a few. Most times, she couldn't wait to get home to begin canning and preparing her homemade preserves. The canning and preserves that she presently has could probably feed a family of six for at least a year. When the pandemic occurred, none of Betty's family or friends had to stand in line or search for hand sanitizers, toilet tissue, Clorox wipes, or any of those things. You could shop easily and freely in Betty's pantry and kitchen cabinets for anything you may need. Her kindness and generosity will be deeply missed.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband, SFC (Ret.) Thomas Garvin; a son, Dallas Eugene Jackson; her only daughter, Tamana Jamise Garvin; a sister, Willie Mae Roseborough Long; and a brother and sister-in-law, Charles and S. Eva Alice Roseborough.

Mrs. Betty Roseborough Garvin leaves to cherish her precious memory: her loving and devoted son, Earl (Debra) Jackson; her loving and devoted grandson (whom she reared), Brian Garvin; her sister, Janice Vant Smith, of Lithonia, GA; brother-in-law, Maurice Long, of Columbia, SC; sisters-in-law, Linda Garvin, of Atlanta, GA and Carrie Garvin Brown, of New York, NY; grandson, Earl Thompson, of Leesville, LA; granddaughter, Kenya Bailey, of Columbia, SC; great-granddaughter, Eriyanna Aranda, of Houston, TX; her best and devoted friends, Ethel Braxton, Shirley Wilson, The Taylor family, and next door neighbor, John Thomas; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly and cherish her memory.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.*

I took His hand when I heard His call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work, or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way

I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-

God wanted me now; He has set me free.
