

Obituary

Ms. Clementine Tina Harris was born on March 2, 1957 in Philadelphia, PA. She was the daughter of James Brown and Betty Harris. She went home to be with the Lord on Monday, January 31, 2022.

Although she spent most of her life in Philadelphia, PA, in 1996 she made a choice to seek a new life and opportunities for her children by relocating to South Carolina. She had many careers during her life. Her last career was as an OTR Truck Driver, which she began upon her youngest child leaving the home.

She was a woman with a nomadic spirit who loved to travel. Another joy was singing. Throughout her life, she used her talent to bring glory to God. Her smile is unforgettable, and her laughter is still echoing in the hearts of everyone who knew her.

Ms. Clementine Harris is survived by: her sun, moon, and star (her children), Mark, Larahn, and Kevin; her world, nine grandchildren; Imani, Ajaysha, Markese, Shamyah, Ciyair, Kyra, Jaylin, Zarahn, and Khloe; her sister, Valerie Caliz; brothers, James A. Brown and Paul N. Harris; with a host of adored nieces, nephews, cousins, and loving friends, all of whom will miss Tina dearly.

Postlude

*To Those I Love and
To Those Who Love Me*

When I am gone release me; let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now it is time I traveled on alone.
So, grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So, if you need me, call. I will come.
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near;
And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you, soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and wave
"Welcome Home."
