

Obituary

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help"
Psalm 121:1

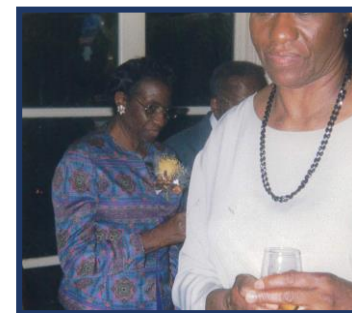

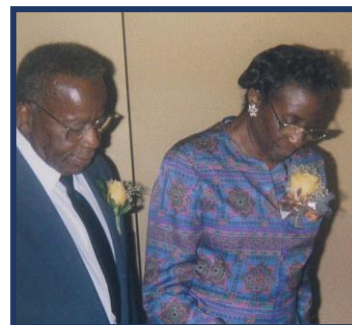

Mrs. Mary Cat Edmond Major was born on October 14, 1929 in St. Matthews, South Carolina. She was the second of six children born to the late Henry P. Edmond and Elizabeth Keller Edmond Briggman. Mary Major was called home on February 21, 2022, to be with her Heavenly Father.

She was educated in the public schools of Calhoun County, South Carolina. She was a domestic worker for many years of her life. Mary became saved at an early age, and was baptized at Antioch Baptist Church in Calhoun County. She later became a member of Antioch Baptist Church in Columbia, South Carolina. Mary and her late husband were very active in their church.

Mary married the love of her life, James Frank Major, in 1949. They didn't have any children of their own but they were second parents to many of their nephews and nieces. They shared their wisdom with them on many occasions. Mary was very proud of her culinary skills, and shared many of her dishes with those she loved. She was a skilled seamstress as well.

Remaining to remember her smile: two brothers, Henry (Mary) Edmond, of Columbia, SC and Ernest (Lavater) Edmond; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and special friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

*Don't Bring Me Flowers
When I am Dead*

*Don't bring me flowers when I am dead,
Come see me today, while I'm sick in bed.
Don't cry for me, when I'm no longer here,
Come smile with me, no need for tears.*

*Don't try to remember how I used to be,
Come by today and you can see.
Make good use of time, while I'm still around,
Don't wait for tomorrow, when I'm in the ground.*

*And don't give me a funeral fit for a king,
The day I die everyone should sing.
Because you saw me through sorrow and strife,
And yes my friends, all through my life.*

Juan Olivarez
