

If Tears Could Build A Stairway To Heaven

If tears could build a stairway,
And memories a lane,
I would walk right up to heaven and bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say goodbye.
You were gone before I knew it,
And God only knows why.
My heart still aches with sadness, and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you, no one can ever know

In Our Hearts

We thought of you today,
But that's nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday,
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories,
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part.
God has you in His keeping,
We have you in our hearts.

Your brothers,
Rick, Wes, and Don

Life Reflections of Ms. Fran Ellen Washington

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.” 2 Timothy 4:7

Ms Fran Ellen Washington, daughter of the late Wesley Washington and Annie Mae Johnson Washington was born June 2, 1975 in Eastover, South Carolina.

On February 11, 2022, God delivered the key for our sweet Fran to enter her new home in heaven, and leaving us comforted that she his now resting with our Savior. Fran was the caretaker for our mother for 15 years.

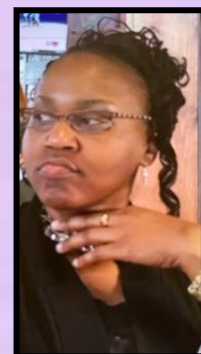

She was an active member of St. Matthew Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Tommy Gibson.

Fran was a 1993 graduate of Lower Richland High School. She was also a graduate of Midlands Technical College obtaining her certification as a CNA. She was also employed with the State Newspaper and Walmart. Fran was a loving, caring, and sharing woman to everyone. She touched many lives, during her time here on earth, and her loving spirit will always be remembered.

Fran Ellen Washington leaves to cherish her life and legacy: her loving mother, Annie Mae Johnson Washington, of Eastover, South Carolina; sister, Vivian Knox (Wilfred)); brothers, Deacon Lorenzo “Rick” Washington, of Gadsden, South Carolina, Wesley Washington, Jr., and Donald Washington, of Eastover, South Carolina; nieces and nephews whose lives she impacted, Victoria “Punkin” Washington, Denijah Washington, Wilfred “KJ” Knox, Jr., Lorenzo “LJ” Washington, Jr., Onis Washington, Tatyana Washington, Christopher Knox, and Kaelyn Jacobs; great niece and great nephew, Adonis Washington and Avah Washington; uncle, James (Chong) Taylor, of Columbia, South Carolina; aunts, Josephine Russell, of Georgia and Mattie Grooms, of Columbia, South Carolina; uncle Sam (Frances) Johnson, of Gaston, South Carolina; great aunt, Estelle “Missy” Taylor, of Eastover, South Carolina; a host of cousins and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
