

*To Those Whom I Love and
Those Who Love Me*

-Anonymous

*When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that I have had so many years*

*I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love each have shown
But now it is time I traveled on alone*

*So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust
It is only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories in your heart*

*I will not be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear
Then, when you must come this way alone
I will greet you with a smile and "Welcome you home."*

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mrs. Bonnie Stine Dingle Gantt, are deeply appreciative for the many expressions of kindness extended to us, during our time of sorrow. Each act bears a special significance, brings a ray of sunshine to our saddened hearts, and comfort to all of us. Our loss is great, but we are comforted in the knowledge that so many care. May God bless each of you.

A special thank you to the South Carolina Oncology Association.

Obituary

Mrs. Bonnie Stine Dingle Gantt was born January 7, 1947, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the oldest child of Jennie Grier Mixon and the late Rev. James Mixon, and the late Elijah Dingle. She departed this life on Sunday, March 27, 2022.

Mrs. Gantt was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina and graduated from C.A. Johnson High School, Class of 1965. Always a hard worker, she began her career as a licensed cosmetologist at E&J Beauty Nook, Columbia, South Carolina. She continued her career as a machine operator at Dreher Packing Company, later moving on to Allied Chemical in Irmo, South Carolina. She ended her working career as a faithful employee of Westinghouse Electric Company in Hopkins, South Carolina, serving over 38 years upon retirement.

Mrs. Gantt was baptized at an early age and joined Jehovah Baptist Church in Columbia, South Carolina, before moving her membership to Unity Missionary Baptist Church in Hopkins, South Carolina. Mrs. Gantt used her spiritual gifts serving as church decorator and church treasurer for many years. Mrs. Gantt enjoyed utilizing her creative talents through gardening, sewing, and baking. She thoroughly enjoyed singing in the choir, bowling, traveling, and line dancing.

Mrs. Gantt's family was her greatest accomplishment. She leaves to mourn her passing: her devoted husband, Raymond Odell Gantt; three sons, Raymond (Mariela) Jeter, Rayfield (Kimberly) Jeter II, and Quentin (Calandra) Gantt all of Columbia, South Carolina; sisters, Gloria Brunson, of Anchorage, Alaska, Bobbie Dingle of Columbia, South Carolina, Rosa Weathersby, of Hopkins, South Carolina, LaTonya Stewart of Springfield, Virginia, Qeshona Mixon of Nashville, Tennessee; brothers, Charles (Constance) Dingle of Hopkins, South Carolina, Tyrone (Marketa) Mixon, and Thomas Mixon, both of Columbia, South Carolina; five grandsons, Sgt. Raymond (Donya) Jeter II, Xavier Jeter, Calvin Johnson, Jaylon Jeter, and Quentin Gantt, Jr.; three granddaughters, Tamia Gantt, Ainsley Jeter, and Jordyn Gantt; four great-grandchildren; nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
