

God's Garden

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.*

*He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never Get well on earth again.*

*He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

Life Reflections
of
Ms. Judy Ann Gilmore Jackson

Ms. Judy Ann Gilmore Jackson was the third child born to the late Eugene Gilmore, Sr. and Lucinda Gilmore, on June 19, 1957, in Columbia, South Carolina. She departed this life on Thursday, March 17, 2022.

At an early age, Ms. Jackson gave her life to Christ, and was baptized at Second Nazareth Baptist Church. She was an active member of the church, and sang many years with The Voices of Faith Choir.

She was educated in the Richland County school system, where she graduated from Columbia High School, class of 1975.

Judy furthered her education and received her bachelor's degree from the University of South Carolina and her Master's Degree from Webster University.

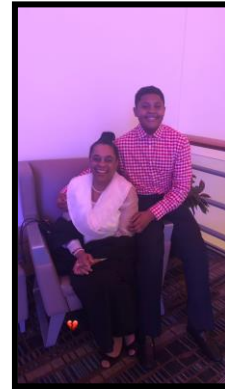

She became an employee at J.B. White department store, where she dedicated many years before becoming an employee for Richland County School District One. Judy retired from the Richland County School District in 2021.

She loved her grandchildren, Breia, Brooklyn, DeMarcus, and Rekeena, but she shared a very special bond with her grandson, Julian. They are truly going to miss her.

Ms. Jackson was preceded in death by her son, Solomon Jackson III; her brother, Eugene Gilmore, Jr., and her sister Gail Brown.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Juwanda Jackson; son, Christopher Cannon; brothers, Wayne Gilmore, Sr., Xavier Gilmore, Rondell Gilmore, Eudell Gilmore, and Stanley Gilmore; sisters, Ronda Thomas, Seabelle Gilmore, and Sharon (Vincent) Boyd; two of her children's father, Rev. Dr. Solomon Jackson, Jr., grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
