

She's In The Sun, The Wind, The Rain

*She's in the sun, the wind, the rain,
she's in the air you breathe
with every breath you take.
She sings a song of hope and cheer,
there's no more pain, no more fear.
You'll see her in the clouds above,
hear her whisper words of love,
you'll be together before long,
until then, listen for her song.*

Obituary

Annie Elizabeth Mayo was born on August 24, 1951, to the late Louise P. and Willie Mayo, Sr., a US Army Veteran and a Registered Nurse in Columbia, SC. She attended Richland County public schools, Midlands Technical College, and the University of South Carolina. She became a Licensed Practical Nurse and worked with the SC Department of Mental Health for 24 years. Annie transitioned peacefully at home, on March 10, 2022, after a long bout of disabling multiple sclerosis.

Annie, in her younger years, served in the United States Army, and later pursued a career in modeling. She was a loving and warm person with a giving heart, and captivating smile. She had a strong mind and was always willing to sacrifice to help others. She was a spirited, vivacious, and eccentric individual. (Those who knew her well, knows that SHE NEVER MISSED A GOOD DEAL!)

Annie, or Ann as she liked to be called, was blessed with a large and loving family.

She is survived by: her three daughters, Ericka L. Mack, Brandy A. Olivis, and Candy L. Olivis; one son, Darieon T. Williams; one goddaughter, Sandra Kay Lewis; seven grandsons, Terran B. Rowe, Rickey C. Rhone, Jeremy D. Mack, Trenton A. Rowe, Walter P. Mack IV, Ryan R. Rowe, and Darieon T. Spurlock; one granddaughter, Siva A. Williams; one great-grandson, Taylan A. Rowe; one godgrandson, Richard M. James; four brothers, Willie (Billie) Mayo, Jr., Lawrence G. Mayo, Dana Craig (Gladys) Mayo, and Maurice Mayo; one sister Paula L.
