

Obituary

Ms. Chris Ann Pauling was born on December 26, 1966, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the middle girl and fourth child born to her parents, Evelyn Pauling and the late James White. She transitioned from earth to glory on Thursday, March 3, 2022.

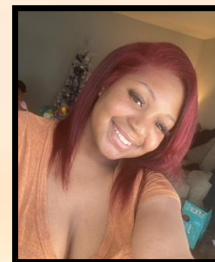

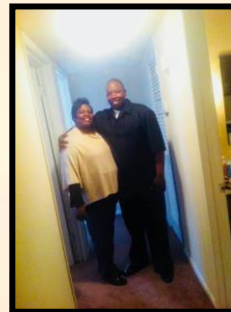

She was educated in the public school system of Richland County, where she obtained her high school diploma. She was employed with Palmetto Baptist Hospital for 25 years, where she was a faithful CNA. She later went on to work for Continue Care, Pruitt Health, and White Oak Manor. At the time of her passing, she was still employed with White Oak Manor.

Chris, affectionately known as Chrisann was a woman who had a big heart with a lot of love. She cared for everyone, especially her children and grandchildren, who were her pride and joy. If you were in need, she would do anything to help if she could. She was the type of woman who would give you the shirt off of her back if needed. Anyone that she had an encounter with, she left them with a positive impact. Chrisann was a woman of few words, but had a smile that would light up the room. You rarely saw her upset or mad, if you did, she would just look at you and laugh. She was the best mother, daughter, sister, niece, aunt, cousin, and friend anyone could ask for. Chrisann was a strong believer in God. She accepted her fate. We will all miss her dearly.

She was preceded in death by her father, James White; grandmothers, Ruby Pauling and Francis Simon; brother, James (Dooney) Pauling; seven aunts, Irene, Barbara Jean, Ada, Salley, Mary, Loris, and Dorothy; four uncles, Freddie, William, Willie, and James (AL); two nephews, and a cousin.

Ms. Chris Ann Pauling leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Evelyn Pauling; four children, Aceif Pauling, Brooke Pauling, Javier Pauling, and Franzia Burns; three grandchildren, A'Bella Joyner, Nazar Burns, and Makyi Pauling; two sisters, Dorothy Spears and Jennifer (Allen) Browning; two brothers, Henry and Freddie Pauling; a special friend, Corey Robinson; her best friend of 20+ years, Stacey Johnson; a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

I Made It Home

*In the morning when you look for me,
call my phone just to hear me speak.
If I don't answer, or you can't see me,
Just know my God came back for me.*

*Took me to a place so beautiful and sweet,
no more pain, burdens, or worrying for me.
This journey wasn't an easy one to complete,
but it didn't take long for him to rescue me.*

*The tears you share, let them be of joy.
For God has called me to my forever home.
The darkness you see or feel that you're in replace it with the light that you know I am.*

*I was a pilgrim just passing through,
on my way to someplace new.
God is taking care of me, in the shelter of His hands.
He wrapped me in his arms and showed me his plans.*

*Finally, I am at rest from the works I've done.
I just stopped by to tell you, I made it home.*
