

Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

God Took Her To His Loving Home

God saw her getting tired, a cure was not to be.

He wrapped her in His loving arms and whispered "Come with Me".

She suffered much in silence, her spirit did not bend.

She faced her pain with courage, until the very end.

She tried so hard to stay with us but her fight was not in vain,

God took her to His loving home and freed her from the pain.

Mrs. Jacinta Toni Antonio Rhines-Reid was born on June 27, 1960 in Columbia, SC. She was the second child of the late Evangelist Annie Elizabeth Rhines and Jacinto Rhines.

Jacinta was educated in the public school systems of Richland County, South Carolina and East Forsyth High School, in Winston-Salem, NC. She graduated from East Forsyth in 1978. She would later enroll in the Nursing Program at Midland Technical College, graduating from the Nursing Program with a 4.0 grade point average.

She retired in 2015 from Providence Northeast Hospital after 40 years of service in the healthcare industry.

Jacinta was baptized at an early age, and was a member of the historical Mt. Zion A.M.E. Church, in Charleston, SC.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Evangelist Annie Elizabeth Rhines.

Mrs. Jacinta Toni Antonio Rhines-Reid leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her fond memory: her loving and devoted husband of 31 years, Reverend Jessie N. Reid, Jr.; three sons; one daughter-in-law; three grandchildren; one brother; two sisters; nieces; nephews; cousins; and many other relatives, colleagues, and friends; all of whom will miss her.
