

"To MeMa, From #1"

You praised and sung sweetly
In a world torn by hatred and wars,
So you went on to find beauty
Just behind Heaven's doors.
Leaving your pain and stress behind,
You passed your worldly test,
Transcending all space and time,
To reunite with the Best.
A kiss may never feel the same,
A hug just might not do,
But God will keep with us the memories
Of knowing and loving you.
Though we're not sure how,
And not exactly sure when,
There will be a beautiful day
When we see you again.
Rest well, my sweet MeMa.
Well done.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mrs. Alean Barr Scott, wish to acknowledge the many expressions of kindness, love, and sympathy shown during our time of loss. A special word of thanks to the medical staff at Encompass Health, Prisma Health Baptist, Parkridge, and Wellspring Family Medicine for their kindness and respect shown at all times; to their church family from Haskell Heights First Baptist Church, Right Direction Church International, and Family Worship & Praise Center for their love, prayers, and support shown during this time; to Leevy's Funeral Home and Bush River Memorial Gardens for their professional and sensitive handling of arrangements.

For those who helped in any way, your contribution made our loss more bearable. As it would be impossible to thank everyone individually, please accept this acknowledgement as an expression of our deepest gratitude.

Obituary

Mrs. Alean Barr Scott was born Alean Barr on March 8, 1953, in Johnsonville, SC in the Vox Community. Affectionately known as Bey, she was the middle child of the late Luther Rufus Barr and Mary Leona Brown Barr. She departed this life on Sunday, March 27, 2022.

Alean received her early education at Stuckey Elementary and Johnsonville High School. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in English Education from Allen University in Columbia, SC, where she met her future husband, Vanderbilt Scott, Jr. She became a member of the Mu Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. Following 27 years of working with BellSouth and retiring in 2001, she worked with H&R Block for an additional 18 years. Outside of work, Alean served as a Girl Scout Leader within the Haskell Heights First Baptist Church and Pine Grove A.M.E Church Communities.

Alean gave her life to Christ in 1978 at Progressive Church of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and received the infilling of the Holy Ghost, with the evidence of speaking in tongues. She and her family joined Haskell Heights First Baptist Church in 1988, where Alean became a deaconess and enjoyed praising the Lord and serving in gladness. Throughout her years of membership, she gratefully served in several auxiliaries: Christian Education, as a youth educator, Women’s Ministry Leader, Intercessory Prayer Team, Clothing Ministry, Senior Food Baskets Ministry, Altar Ministry, Prayer Ministry, and Jubilee Choir.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Luther Rufus and Mary Leona Barr; three sisters, Elvora Barr, Lynette Barr, and Rose Nell Barr; and one brother, Lygette Barr.

Mrs. Alean Barr Scott leaves to cherish her precious memory: her husband, Vanderbilt Scott, Jr.; her daughters, Vanese Altovise Scott and Valesha Alana Scott; one grandson, JaVan Isaiah Scott; one brother, Alfred (Delphia) Barr; four sisters, Ella Mae Barr, Deloris Barr, Leona Barr-Davenport (Jewel), and Wanda Juliet Barr; one nephew, Carson Alexander Spencer; and a multitude of family members and friends.
