

Her Journey's, Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away,
her journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.
Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
How nothing but our sadness, can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched For nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.*

*of
Ms. Kandis Annette Warner*

Kandis Annette Warner was born on October 5, 1968, in Columbia, South Carolina. Kandis always strived to have a successful future. She went on to earn her CNA certification, and was employed by the Department of Mental Health for many years, where she would later retire. She was an avid foodie, who enjoyed doing anything such as: DIY projects, home décor, crafts, and shopping, especially if it was with her children.

Our precious mother was blessed with an amazing family and super supportive friends. She was always a listening ear and was there when you needed her. Being supportive and encouraging were her best attributes. She made a way out of no way, and always came through even at the last minute. She never wanted to be the center of attention, however, everyone always gravitated towards her. She was the life of the party with her infectious spirit. She was guaranteed to put a smile on your face through the good and bad. She was known for always talking about her children, but especially her grandchildren. She was a phenomenal mother to her children and those around her.

Kandis Annette Warner is survived by: her children, who made up the entirety of her world, sons, Terrance Warner, Franklin Convington, and Jmarcus Wright; daughters, Gloria Warner, Quante Ervin, and Briennecca Ervin; a sister, Janice Brown; 19 wonderful grandchildren; many other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss her kindness, generosity, and her sense of humor with a little style on the side. She will be immensely missed.
