I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.*

Obituary

Mr. De'Marion Corbett was the son of Lashonda Corbett and Samuel Green. He was born on May 29, 2005, in Columbia, South Carolina. On Wednesday evening, April 29, 2022, he quietly departed this life to go where Jesus prepared for all of His believers.

De'Marion was a junior at Columbia High School, where he was taking advanced courses. He had dreams of becoming a Neurosurgeon. De'Marion had a love for baseball, a sport he began playing in the seventh grade. He continued to play while at Columbia High, as a starting pitcher and first baseman.

He was preceded in death by his younger brother, Samuel Green, Jr.

Mr. De'Marion Corbett leaves to cherish his precious memory: his mother, Lashanda Corbett; father, Samuel Green; siblings, De'Monte Green, Justin Green, A'Myhia Green, Heaven Green, and Malachi Smith; grandparents, Wilhelmina Corbett Anderson, Robert Anderson, Helen Elizabeth Green, and Roscoe Emanuel Johnson; a host of other loving relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of the late De'Marion Corbett, would like to thank each of you for the expressions of love shown to us, during our time of sorrow. We pray that God blesses each of you in a very special way.
