

God's Garden

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.*

*He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never Get well on earth again.*

*He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

Obituary
of
Mrs. Annie Mae Johnson Washington

“Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies.
Proverbs 31:10

On April 20, 2022, God saw his child getting weary and knew there was no cure. So he whispered, “Annie Mae, I am here for you to join your husband, Wesley Lad Washington, and daughter, Fran Ellen Washington in heaven.”

Annie Mae Mucka Chang, daughter of the late Sam and Annie Johnson. She was born on September 14, 1941, in Eastover, South Carolina. Annie Mae was a graduate of Webber High School, in Eastover, South Carolina. She later became employed with the Richland County School District (Webber High School) for 26 years.

Annie Mae was known for being friendly, having a servant’s heart, loving her children, but most of all she loved the Lord. She was baptized and was an active member of St. Matthews Baptist Church for many years, with Reverend Tommy Gibson until her passing.

In addition to her parents, husband, and daughter, she was preceded in death by her sisters, Janie Myles and Ella Mae Ellison; brothers, Grant Johnson, Wiley Johnson, and Heyward Fair Brown Johnson.

“The Lord has been good to me,” was one of her favorite sayings, even until her passing. She leaves to forever cherish her life and memory: her sons, Deacon Lorenzo Rick Washington, of Gadsden, SC, Wesley Washington, Jr., and Donald Edward Washington, both of Eastover, SC; daughter, Vivian (Wilfred) Knox, of Hopkins, SC; grandchildren, Victoria Punkin Washington, Denijah Washington, Wilfred KJ Knox, Jr., Lorenzo LJ Washington, Onis Washington, Tatyana Washington, Christopher Knox, and Kaelyn Jacobs; great-grandchildren, Adonis Washington and Avah Washington; one brother, Sam (Frances) Johnson, of Swansea, SC; one sister, Mattie Grooms, of Eastover; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

“The smile on her face proved she was a virtuous woman and her price is far above Rubies!”
