

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary

Mrs. Ettia Coles Goodman was born in Hopkins, South Carolina, on April 4, 1939. She was the ninth child born to Patsy and Abram Coles. Ettia departed this earthly life on Monday, May 9, 2022. On December 30, 1961, she was joined in holy matrimony to George Goodman.

Ettia worked as an Operating Room Technician for Coney Island Hospital for 40 years. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend. She possessed a warm and welcoming spirit and always welcomed anyone who visited with open arms. Ettia was a good-hearted woman and very independent.

Mrs. Ettia Coles Goodman leaves to mourn her passing and to cherish her precious memory: her daughter, Carmen Jones; son-in-law, Demetrius Jones; grandchildren, Marcus and Megan; a sister, Octavia Brantley; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom miss her dearly.
