A Fallen Limb

“A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, “Grieve not for me. Remember the best times, the laughter, the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I’m counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease; my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don’t worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes, we’re together again.”

Obituary

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

I I Timothy 4:6-7

Dorothy Corley Isaac, 92, completed her earthly journey and was called to eternal rest on Monday, May 23, 2022, at MUSC Columbia Medical Center Hospice Care. Her departure has left a void within all of our hearts.

She was born on July 19, 1929 in Irmo, SC, to the late Alfred Corley, Sr. and Leathia Trapp Corley. She was married to the late George Williams, and in that union, they were blessed with six children: Thelma Jean, David Sterling, Terrie Lorraine, Larry Jerome, Jacqueline Denise, and Kenneth Dewayne. In later years, she married Robert Isaac.

She was educated in the Lexington County Public School system. She was employed by Richland County school system at A.C. Flora High School for over ten years. She also obtained a vocational trade for Interior Design and Window Treatments. She then became employed with the R.L. Bryan company for more than 10 years, in their Interior Design department. Dorothy also worked for Gottlieb-Taylor Interior Designs, until her health caused her to retire.

She accepted Christ at an early age at her home church, Youngs Chapel AME, in Irmo, SC. She was a faithful member of the Antioch Baptist Church, and was also a member of the Jubilee Choir. She loved her church, and her church family. Singing jubilee was what she loved most.

She really enjoyed life, her family, shopping, sewing, cooking, doing interior designs, and also preparing for the holidays.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Isaac; son, Larry Williams; brothers, Alfred Corley, Jr., Robert Corley; sisters, Agnes Bell, Carrie Johnson, and Lillie Corley.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her wonderful memory and to continue her legacy: her five children, Thelma Williams, of Columbia, SC, David Williams, of Columbia, SC, Terrie (Lenon) Harris, of Columbia, SC, Jacqueline (Tony) Harrington, of Marston, NC, and Kenneth Williams, of Columbia, SC; a sister, Helen (Floyd) Joyner, of Wilmington, DE; niece, Louise Scott, of Philadelphia, PA, who was reared in the home as a sister; sister-in-law, Thelma Perkins; four grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other family members, extended family, and friends.
