

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.*

I took His hand when I heard His call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work, or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way

I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-

God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary

Thaman Antron Pitts was born on January 27, 1972, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the middle child of Marshall Craig Pitts and Joann T. Pitts. He went on to the next stage of life during the early hours of Tuesday, May 31, 2022.

Thaman graduated from W. J. Keenan High School, Class of 1991. He attended Midlands Technical College, and joined the United States Marine Corps in 1994, and served a tour in Europe. He returned to Columbia, South Carolina, where used his charming personality, and worked as a car salesman.

Thaman was the most loving, caring, and respectful person you could ever meet. He lived his life being kind hearted to everyone he encountered. To know him was to love him. Thaman constantly brightened up the lives of others, and made everyone he came in contact with feel special, loved, and worthy.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Lawrence Thomas and Bessie Thomas; uncle, Lawrence Thomas, and his loved one, Michelle Gustafson.

Thaman Pitts leaves to mourn his passing: his parents, Marshall Craig Pitts and Joann T. Pitts; his brothers, Tyrone A. Thomas and Marshall Craig (Doris) Pitts II; his daughters, Nia Imani Pitts and Kayla Artise Pitts; the mother of his children, Brandy McCoy; uncles, Robert Earl Thomas and Alonzo (Margaret) Thomas, aunts, Frances Bonnet (Barney) Allen and Dorothy O. (Tim) Hopkins; nieces, Tiara Jasmin Nicole Pitts and Ciara Mckenzie Pitts; nephews, Craig Daquan Pitts and Marshall Craig Pitts III; a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
