On The Wings of Prayer

Just close your eyes and open your heart
And feel our worries and care depart,
Just yield yourself to the Father above
And let Him hold you secure in His love...
For life on earth grows more involved
With endless problems that can't be solved-
But God only asks us to do our best,
Then He will "take over" and finish the rest...
So when you are tired, discouraged, and blue,
There's always one door that is open to you-
And that is the door to "The House of Prayer"
And you'll find God waiting to meet you there...

Obituary

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing. 2 Timothy 4:7-8

Mrs. Eva Mae Daniels was born on February 25, 1940, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the oldest child of the late Richard Jackson and Georgiana Jackson. Eva departed this earthly life on Wednesday, June 8, 2022.

Eva was a devoted member of First Nazareth Baptist Church. She worked as a cook for the First Nazareth Baptist Church Child Development Center. Eva was a loving wife, devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and friend. She was a woman of few words, but full of wisdom. She willingly shared with anyone who asked for advice. Eva was a beaming light in her family, and will always be remembered for her joyous and kind spirit.

In addition to her parents, she was also preceded in death by her brother, Willie Jackson.

Mrs. Eva Mae Daniels leaves to cherish her memory: her dedicated husband, Isreal Daniels, Jr.; sons, Freddie Hammond, Jr., Cameron (Elaine) Hammond, Sr., and Stephen Hammond; daughters, Annette Hammond and Yolanda Daniels, all of Columbia, South Carolina, Tiffany Daniels, of Hopkins, South Carolina; sisters, Rutha Myles, Sheryl Jackson, Mary Blanks, Bessie Robertson, and Lilly Plummer, all of Columbia, South Carolina; brothers, Alfonza (Vanessa) Jackson, of Santee, South Carolina, Gerald Jackson, Reverend David (Edwina) Jackson, and Odell (Shareka) Jackson, all of Columbia, South Carolina; sisters-in-law, Helen Bradley, of Hopkins, South Carolina, Jacqueline Days, of Columbia, South Carolina; brothers-in-law, Abraham Daniels, of Columbia, South Carolina, David Daniels, Henry Daniels, and Mack Daniels, all of Hopkins, South Carolina; four grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
