

Weep Not For Me

By an Unknown Author

Weep not for me though I am gone, into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long,
upon my soul's sweet flight
I am at peace, my soul's at rest,
there is no need for tears.
For with your love I was so blessed,
for all those many years.
There is no pain, I suffer not,
the fear is now all gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts,
in your memory I'll live on.
Remember not my fight for breath,
remember not the strife.
Please do not dwell upon my death,
but celebrate my life.

Obituary

Ms. Viola Hammond was born on November 2, 1943, in Kingsville, South Carolina. She was the middle child of the late Juliues and Louise Huff. She departed this life on Wednesday, June 22, 2022.

Ms. Hammond was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. Viola was employed as a USDA Food Inspector for Amick Farms, in Batesburg, South Carolina. She retired after many years of dedicated service. Ms. Hammond was a member of the The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. She enjoyed serving and helping those in need. Being a very friendly person, she never met a stranger.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Earnest Hammond; sister, Mildred Suber; brother, Alexander Huff; son, William Huff, and her daughter, Sandra Hammond.

Ms. Viola Hammond leaves to mourn her passing: her son, Johnny (Mildred) Huff, of Irmo, South Carolina; daughter, Helen (Charles) Singleton, of Columbia, South Carolina; grandson, Johnathan Huff, of Irmo, South Carolina; granddaughters, Courtney Riley, of Eastover, South Carolina, Shana White, of Roswell, Georgia, Jasmine Kelly, of Columbia, South Carolina, Sheika Anderson and Rhoshaunda Anderson, both of Columbia, South Carolina; sister, Emma Jones, of Orlando, Florida; twelve great-grandchildren; a special friend, Aaron Swift; a host of other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
