

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Ms. Geneva Johnson was born on September 22, 1958. On Wednesday, June 1, 2022, Geneva passed away due to extended illnesses at the age of 63 years old, at the residence of her daughter.

Geneva was fostered by the late Oscar Bookard and Mellie Summers Bookard, in Bowman, SC. In her lifespan, she attended public schools in Bowman, SC. She later attended South Carolina State College, in Orangeburg, SC.

Due to an accident at an early age, which resulted in extensive medical care and hospital stays, Geneva desired to give back to the medical community that gave her a fighting chance in life. She graduated from the highly competitive nursing program at Orangeburg Calhoun Technical College, with an associates degree in Nursing. She worked as a trauma nurse at Richland Memorial Hospital for 20 years, before her early retirement. She was so extremely devoted to the nursing profession that she was nominated and won both the Richland Memorial Hospital Nurse of the year award and Med-Surgical/Trauma Services Nurse of the year award in 1998. Due to her achievements, she made groundbreaking history by becoming the only dual winner in a single year in the rich history of Richland Memorial Hospital.

She is survived by her only child, her daughter, Taukedrik Yvonne Boyd; her only grandchild whom she loved abundantly, Carson K Boyd; sister, Corine (Bernard) Johnson; brothers, Pastor James (Annette) Johnson and Woodrow Fable; nieces Jamaica (James) Allen, Licia (Calvin) Fletcher, Shawana Glover, and Dynasty Aja Dixon; nephew, Timothy (Tameka) Johnson; she is also survived by her foster sisters, Rommel McCants and June Bookard; foster brothers Jimmy (Beverly) Bookard and Levi (Martha Lou) Bookard, a host of extended family and wonderful friends.
