

Dear Father,

She was a pillar, a gift of love, a treasure to my soul. Always caring, forever kind and giving. To us she was a lovely, beautiful Grandmother and to you a beloved child of God. We could only know her a little, you knew her spirit deep inside. Whilst waves of grief break over us, crushing like a storm, you've greeted her with a warm embrace, and gently called her home. It's silent and so empty here, since she passed away, and yet she will hear celebration, called forever into grace. Our memories are treasures now, we'll value, keep and sow, we know she's taken all her riches, left the chaff and worn the gold! As time passes, we will forget the hurt and pain she bore, For now, she's free, restored and peaceful, in your arms forevermore. We will let each bulb, each bud, each bloom, sing to me of your love. For you reign in eternity, and we'll wait for your kingdom to come. Thank you for our special Mother and Grandmother. We trust her to your care; we rest in your arms secure and safe as we are all children there.

Obituary
of
Ms. Beatrice Scott Randolph

Ms. Beatrice Scott Randolph, affectionately known as Queen Bea, was born on July 20, 1942, in Columbia, SC. She was the youngest child of the late Dewey Scott and Lillian Scott.

Ms. Randolph was educated in the public schools of Richland County, SC, and graduated from Booker T. Washington, class of 1960. She had an array of occupations: an award-winning saleswoman with Avon, food service provider, and finished her work career at Anchor Continental after 15 years.

Beatrice was a God-fearing woman who loved God first, then her family. She was a faithful member of Haskell Heights First Baptist Church, for over 40 years.

She was a phenomenal mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She made major impacts and touched the lives of so many. She will be remembered for her infectious smile, stylish attire, and her amazing baking and cooking. She was blessed with the spirit of encouragement, giving, and had a heart for people. She always wanted everyone to know about her love for God, her four girls, nine grands, and five great-grands.

She was known for her many "Bea-risms" like: "Cleanliness is next to Godliness," "If you owe a man, pay a man!", "Pray without ceasing," "God will never leave you or deceive you," and "If your conscience don't condemn you, neither will I!"

Beatrice was preceded in death by her brother, Leon, her sister, Mary, and nephew Daryl.

Precious memories will be cherished by her children: Cheryl E. Gainey, of Columbia, SC, Regina (Gregory) Williams, of Columbia, SC, Angela O. Thompson, of Fort Mill, SC, and Lenise (Jamie) Gainey, of Hampton, V.A.; her nine grandchildren: Dewey, Richard, King, Jasmine, Lauren, Shane, Breyon, Kaila, and Kristen; honorary grandchild, Lakeshia Mincey; five great-grandchildren: Jude, Gabby, Eli, Love, and Yuri; loving nieces and nephew, Gale, Misty, Tracey, Nina, and Steve, a host of other loving family, and friends.
