

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Mr. Willie Lee Scott, Jr. was born on November 10, 1954, in Blackville, South Carolina. He was the eldest son of the late Willie Lee Scott, Sr. and Annie Lou Harrison Scott. He departed this life on Tuesday, June 28, 2022.

Mr. Scott was educated in the public schools of Lexington and Richland Counties, and graduated from Eau Claire High School, class of 1973. In his late teens, his family moved to Crane Forest, in Columbia, South Carolina, where he resided until his health failed. Willie Lee Scott, Jr., affectionately known as Sonny, spent his high school years as a district one school bus driver. He was later employed by Piggly Wiggly Grocery Store, Columbia Lumber, and Carolina Sales.

Mr. Scott was baptized at an early age, and joined Mount Zion Baptist Church in Cayce, South Carolina, where he sang on the men's choir. He was a talented artist as a young adult, and enjoyed carpentry, soulful music, and his beloved dogs.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Willie Lee Scott, Sr. and Annie Lou Harrison Scott; his sister, Alwillie Middleton; and two grandsons, Kaleb and Elijah Williams.

Mr. Willie Lee Scott, Jr., leaves to mourn his passing, his daughter, Michelle (Keith) Williams, of Sterling, VA; brothers, Wilson Leon (Juretta) Scott, Clarence Larry (Erica) Scott, and Clinton Harry Scott, all of Columbia, SC; sisters, Clarice Scott Rowe, of Columbia, SC, Sallie Wise, of Cayce, SC, Almeta Taylor, and Sarah J. Scott, both of Columbia, SC; one granddaughter, Hidayah Williams; a host of nephews, nieces, and other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly
