

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.*

Obituary

Ms. Davida Renee Stinchcomb was born on July 29, 1963, in Queens, New York. She was the oldest child of David Stinchcomb and Audrey Thompson English. She departed this life on Wednesday, June 15, 2022, after becoming suddenly ill.

She attended public schools in Richland County, South Carolina, and was a graduate of Richland Northeast High School, where she played the flute. She later joined the flag line. After graduating from Richland Northeast, she attended Midlands Technical College, where she studies court reporting. Davida worked as a Certified Nursing Assistant in the Columbia area for many years and traveled throughout the Western United States to care for patients.

Davida was preceded in death by her father, David Stinchcomb.

Ms. Davida Renee Stinchcomb leaves to mourn her passing: her son, Derrick Jermaine Alston; her mother, Audrey T. English; her sister, Dr. Dawn F. Stinchcomb, of West Lafayette, Indiana; a host of friends, co-workers, and former patients, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Ms. Davida Renee Stinchcomb, wish to express our heartfelt gratitude for your condolences and sympathy during this difficult time.
