

God vs. Satan

*The score was 0 to 0, bottom of the 9th.
Love was at bat. Love swung and hit a single because love never fails. Next was faith, who also hit a single because faith works with love. The next batter up was Godly wisdom. Satan wound up and threw the first pitch; Godly wisdom looked it over and let it pass...ball one.
Three more pitches and Godly wisdom walked,
because Godly wisdom never swings at Satan's throws.
The bases were loaded. Grace stepped up to the plate.
To the shock of everyone, Grace hit the ball harder than anyone had ever seen. It went right through Satan's glove and continued over the fence for a home run!
God's team won.*

*Love, faith, and Godly wisdom will get you on base,
But only God's grace can bring you home His grace is the one thing Satan cannot stop.*

Obituary

Mr. Charles Anthony Thompson was born on September 22, 1957 in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the youngest child of the late Ella Mae and Cephas Hall.

Mr. Thompson was educated in the public schools of Columbia, South Carolina. He was a graduate of Eau Claire High School. After high school, he went on to serve his country for eight years in the United States Army. During his enlistment, he was stationed at various locations: St. Louis, MO, Fort Benning, GA, and Ft. Knox, KY.

Charles enjoyed walking, fishing, and caring for his animals. He would also care for strays and other neighborhood animals as well. He was employed at Rose's and worked tirelessly to prepare for their grand opening in Orangeburg. It was opened on June 2, 2022, the day after his passing.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Barbara Thompson; son, Charles Anthony Thompson II; brothers, J.C. and Nathaniel Thompson, and his sister, Annie Mae Brewer.

Mr. Charles Anthony Thompson leaves to mourn his passing: his fiancée, Russcener Littles, of Bowman, SC; a son, Jonathan Thompson, of Columbia, SC; a daughter, Sharling Thompson, of Columbia, SC; six grandchildren, one great-grandchild, a niece, Rose Allen, of Columbia, SC, many other loving relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
