

Obituary

Astin Graham Barnes, affectionately known as Lil Baby, was born August 30, 2013, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the youngest of five children born to Serderis Jackson. He departed this life unexpectedly on July 25, 2022.

Lil Baby was smart, outspoken, adventurous, and just a natural comedian. He kept a smile on your face when he was around, and joy and laughter in your spirit. Astin attended Richland County School District 1 and 2, which included Mill Creek and Rice Creek Elementary School. He would've been going to the fourth grade this upcoming school year. He loved music, math, and playing his XBOX with his cousins and friends. Lil Baby also enjoyed doing tik toks with his siblings, and last but not least he loved football. He played running back for the Metro Warriors (#9) last season and currently was the running back for the Blythewood Bengals (#3). Astin was such a bright kid, with the potential to do so much in the future .

He was proceeded in death by his great-grandparents, Charlie Mosley and Ruth Goodwin and his grandmother, Patilisa Goodwin Jackson.

Lil Baby leaves to mourn his passing: his mother, Serderis Jackson (Frankie Boulware); his siblings, Jackson and Sadiyah Jones, Jaedn Muffy Puffy and Jaelin Mann Mann Pinkston, all of Columbia, SC; his Tete, Courtney (Nikki) Jackson, of Sacramento, CA; uncle, Solomon (Gelenah) Jackson, of Waxahachie, TX; his grandfather, Solomon (Tamara) Jackson, of Columbia, SC; his aunt, Vallery Goodwin, of Columbia, SC. Astin also leaves behind a host of loving cousins, caring friends, teammates, teachers, and coaches who genuinely took a liking to him and will miss him very much.

Special Angel In Heaven

There's a special Angel in Heaven

*That is a part of me.
It is not where I wanted him,
but where God wanted him to be.
He was here but just a moment
like a night time shooting star
And though he is in Heaven,
he isn't very far.
He touched the hearts of many like only Angels can.
I would've held him every minute
If I'd only known God's plan.
So I send this special message to the Heavens up above.
Please take care of my Angel
and send him all my love.*
