Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Ms. Savorrey Ciciely Brown was born on September 14, 1985, in San Diego, California. She was the daughter of Beatrice Eigner Brown and the late Mose A. Brown. She departed this life on Monday, July 25, 2022.

Savorrey attended the public schools of Riverdale, Georgia. She attended Riverdale Middle and Riverdale High Schools. Savorrey was employed as a home healthcare worker. She was the light of any gathering, and never met a stranger. Her loving spirit was evident in her love others, from blessing people with her beautiful singing voice to caring for others in general. She was empathetically and excitingly fun-loving. Savorrey was the best hype person, a great supporter, and friend. As a daughter, sister, aunt, and cousin she had the biggest heart. She was stylish, super cool, and enthusiastic. She was simply THAT girl. Savorrey was our celebrity, in short, SHE GAVE!

In addition to her father, Savorrey was preceded in death by her brother, Charles “Fella” Kelly, whom she dearly loved.

Ms. Savorrey Ciciely Brown leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Beatrice Brown; sister, Timeca Mitchell; nephews, Matthew Kelly and JaLance Mitchell; niece, Sierra Mitchell; great-nephew, Catrell Kelly; half siblings, Joshuaie and Quiana Brown; aunts, Margaret (Ernest) Bolton; uncles, Willie, Keith, and Otis Eigner Jr.; first cousins, Ronald, Morris, Cristal, Stacey, Antonio, Jason, Jamar Cresendle, Arden, and Marlana; Godson, Javon; best friends, Challamoon and Jessica; a host of other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly. We love you Savorrey.
